CAMP MISSION

It is our goal to provide superior lacrosse instruction in a safe learning environment where campers of all experience levels can develop their skills and knowledge of lacrosse. Our objective is to increase each players skills, knowledge and confidence so they will be able to take their game to the next level. This will be accomplished through individual and small group instruction from an experienced staff of NCAA College Coaches.

CAMP FIELD DIRECTOR

JOE ALBERICI. Head Coach United States Military Academy at West Point, Assistant Coach of the 2010 U.S. National Lacrosse Team, playing in the the World Games in London in July, former Associate Head Coach at 2005 National Champion runner-up Duke University. In his 9 years at Duke, Joe spent time as both the offensive and defensive coordinators and as goalies coach. As a player Joe was a two time All-American at Alfred University.

FEATURING

JASON ALBERICI. Camp Director, over 15 years coaching lacrosse at the college, high school and youth levels. Played at the University of Albany.

JOHN WALKER. Assistant Coach The University of Virginia, a former 2X All-American Attackman at Army.

BEN WINEBURG. Head Coach Brockport College, former assistant at Nazareth College. As a player Ben was a two-time All-American goalie, was named the Division III Player of the Year and was the MVP of the national championship game while leading Nazareth College.

AL BROWN. Current Head Coach at Portsmouth Abbey School in RI, former Head Coach at Bates College in ME and Alfred University in NY where he was the DIII Coach of the Year.

DAVE NEFF. Head Coach Carthage College.
